ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED

Lafe Alexander, A Marion Boy,
Meets His Death At Cave-in-Rock.

Last Thursday night at eight o'clock just as the gasoline boat of Richard McConnell his brother-in-law was preparing to land for the night Lafe Alexander was accidentally thrown overboard in some way that will never be known exactly. He was sitting on the bow, and as the stage plank was projecting out in the way he volunteered to put it up on the deck and in doing so lost his balance and fell in the water in front of the swift moving boat, and was swept under it in an instant. Mr. McConnell and his two little sons were the only other persons on the boat, and one of them saw his uncle fall overboard and quickly gave the alarm. The engine was stopped and craft backed up to the spot but the unfortunate boy did not rise. The anxious watchers thought once they heard a gurgling sound as of some one struggling in the water but could not locate it and in an instant it was gone.

The night was very dark and a threatening cloud and storm overhung the sky making a search that night impossible. Early next morning the searchers soon found the body in water 8 ft deep near the scene of the accident.

The remains were prepared for burial and brought to the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Alexander and were taken to Pleasant Hill for interment Saturday at noon, Rev. W. T. Oakley officiating.

Lafayette Maxwell Alexander was born July 7th 1893 and was therefore in his 21st year.

He was the youngest of the children of T. J. and Mary Alexander who are well known and highly respected here where they have lived many years, one brother John Alexander lives in Toppensish, Wash. He leaves 5 sisters Mesdames, J. D. Worley, and T. C. Grissom of this city, G. W. Conyer of the New Salem section, Richard McConnell of Cave in Rock, and Alice Burgess.

ADJUDGED INSANE

C. W. Browning, Charged With Writing Threatening Letters,
Sent to Asylum.

Eddyville, Ky., Aug. 26.—C. W. Browning, in jail here since July 1, charged with sending out many threatening letters, and at the time of arrest entering a plea of guilty as to some of the letters, was this morning adjudged insane by a jury before Judge Hanberry, in Circuit Court after a rigid examination by Dr. H. P. Sights, of Hopkinsville Asylum for the insane; Dr. C. H. Linn, of Kuttawa, and Drs. D. J. Travis and W. G. Kinsolving, of Eddyville, who attested his insanity beyond doubt. He will be sent to the asylum at once.

This closes the night rider troubles in Lyon county, it is believed, for all time.

FRANK GUILTY OF MURDER

Jury Returns Verdict Of Murder
Against Former Superintendent.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 27.—Leo M. Frank was found guilty late today of murder in the first degree by the jury which tried him in connection with the killing of fourteen year old Mary Phagan, a factory girl, whose body was found in the basement of the National Pencil factory on April 27. Frank was formerly superintendent of the factory.

Judge Roan announced he would not sentence the prisoner until later. The jury made no recommendations.

The defense announced they would make a motion immediately for a new trial.

JACKIES INVADE COCOANUT GROVE

Raid Comes Near Causing Diplomatic Incident With Panama Republic.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Fourteen coconut-hungry sailors on the United States ship Hannibal came near causing a diplomatic incident, according to advices reaching the state department today, and it was only through the good offices of commander Geo. N. Hayward, in charge of the vessel, which is surveying the Atlantic approaches to the Panama canal, that a misunderstanding with the republic of Panama was averted.

In conjunction with the Charge d'Affaires at Panama, and Gov. Arcia, of Colon, the naval officer explained the raid of his men on the coconut grove of a Panamanian.

"Owing to the skilled diplomacy and the courteous manner in which Commander Hayward handled the matter," said the report received from the legation at Panama, "the complaint was withdrawn."

The complainant, Senor Aguilar, was thoroughly indignant because of the action of some of the men from the Hannibal who were on shore leave. They coveted and took several of the planter's best specimens of fruit. "Carramba!" the planter ejaculated, when he discovered his loss. "I will demand satisfaction!"

When Commander Hayward, accompanied by Gov. Arcia and the resident American diplomat, had explained in quiet terms the dereliction of the men, Senor Aguilar insisted that the men of the Hannibal come to his plantation again "to eat as many coconuts as they desired."

Negro Kills White Man In Crap Game Quarrel.

Morganfield, Ky., Aug. 27.—In a crap game this afternoon a negro from Mt. Vernon, Ind., shot Will Robertson through the heart. Robertson died immediately. His assailant has not been caught. He was the son of Josh Robertson, who was given a cross of honor by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

REMOVAL DANVILLE P. M. PRECEDENT.

Burleson Will Oust Republicans at End of Four-Year Terms
In Every Case.

Washington, Aug. 26.—In discussing the Danville post-office case today Postmaster General Burleson informed the Courier Journal that he will regard four years as a term for postmasters despite the dates of expiration on their commissions. When it can be shown that a postmaster was continued in office after his term expired, for political reasons, and a commission was not immediately made out for him, the Postmaster General said he would work out that official's term on a four year basis and turn him out.

"The case at Danville will be a precedent for me all over the country," said Mr. Burleson. "There the postmaster will have served sixteen years next January, although his present commission does not expire till much later. But I shall regard the sixteen years as four complete terms, and it has been represented to me that Postmaster Linney was not immediately recommended, for political reasons. There must be proof given me in each such case that a postmaster's reappointment was held up to insure his delivering the goods at primaries or elections or something like that. I'm going to observe the rules about it. But if that proof is forthcoming, out goes the postmaster when his four years are up and not when his commission expires."

Representative W. J. Fields said today that under the new postal ruling the present term of Postmaster Clarence Matthews, of Maysville, will expire next April instead of two years hence. At that time, said Mr. Fields, the Postmaster General will undoubtedly replace Matthews, who will have served sixteen years, with a Democrat. There are many similar cases in Kentucky.

CUMBERLAND PUBLISHING HOUSE GIVEN TO RIVALS

Presbyterians in U. S. A. Take Nashville Concern By Compromise.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 26.—J. R. Zerecor, president of the Cumberland Presbyterian Publishing Board, tonight gave out a statement in which he said that, through a compromise, the Cumberland Presbyterian Printing House, located at Nashville, will be turned over to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. In his statement, Mr. Zerecor said:

"The next edition of the Cumberland Presbyterian will be issued by the new board free of cost and the Sunday School literature for the next quarter will be issued practically free of cost. The new board will assume any financial obligations attendant to the printing house. The action follows long drawn out litigation resulting from the union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

Buying Up Horses For the U. S. Cavalry.

The government is buying up cavalry horses and army mules and some are construing this as an indication that the army officials are preparing for trouble with Mexico. Yesterday Layne and Leavell received a letter from the firm of Harper Bros., in St. Louis, advising them they would have a man here on Sept. 2nd., to buy cavalry horses. Messrs. Layne and Leavell are busy now trying to get together a suitable bunch of horses.

The requirements for cavalry horses are very hard to fill and it takes quite awhile to get a number of these horses. They must be absolutely sound with no blemishes, whatever; about five to seven years of age, 15-1 to 15-3 in height, and must have no gaits at all. These requirements bar most of the horses. Nevertheless Layne and Leavell are doing their best to corral a bunch of suitable steeds.—Hopkinsville Democrat.

TURKS CARE FOR WIVES

Cites Moslem Who Supports All
Female Relatives Beside His Own Wife.

London, England, Aug. 26.—That polygamy is really a commendable institution for Turkey, and that it might even be adopted with profit in England, was the rather startling declaration today of Miss Grace Ellison, well-known English writer, who has just returned from a protracted visit in and about Constantinople.

"It is far better," she said today, "to have four women supported and protected than to have one well cared for and three sent out to struggle and starve under present conditions."

"I believe in one or two courses. Either put us in harems or give us freedom and equality with men. England condemns polygamy without stopping to consider its advantage to womanhood, while on the other hand she turns women adrift in the world and closes to them all the professions and trades she can. In other words, the Englishman won't support more than one female, and he won't help others to support themselves."

"Only today I met a woman of 55, the old maid daughter of a country parson, a semi invalid unfitted for work. She hadn't a single soul in the world who was disposed to support or even materially aid her! Such a thing could not happen in Turkey, which we think so benighted. A man supports all female relatives, is necessary, as well as his wives."

"I visited a number of harems in Turkey, and I see no reason to pity the women there. They are intelligent and well educated and very fond of each other. No woman in Turkey is driven to the streets for lack of food and shelter. If she leads an irregular life, she does it of her own free will. Society does not have her on its conscience."

"The Turk is kind and chivalrous to women. Moreover, he is consistent. He looks upon them as the weaker sex and he makes himself responsible for their welfare. He treats them as children but takes all responsibility from them and cares for them to the best of his ability. The Englishmen also maintain that woman is inferior, but he does not offer general protection to her weakness."

Mrs. R. E. Cooper Ill at Our Famous Health Resort.

News was received here a day or two since of the serious illness of Mrs. R. E. Cooper near Marion.

Mrs. Cooper joined a party six weeks ago to go into camp for the summer at Hill Spring, near Marion. Mr. Cooper left Thursday to be with his wife. His brother, W. D. Cooper, one of the camping party, came home yesterday. He says that Mrs. Cooper was some better when he left and that she was to be taken to the home of her father, at Fredonia, at once, if she was well enough to make the trip.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

THE OHIO RIVER ASSOCIATION

Thirty-first Annual Session of Baptists, Met at Salem
Last Week.

The thirty first annual session of this body was held with the First Baptist church, Salem, Ky., Aug. 20th and 21st.

The moderator, Carl Henderson of Marion called the body to order. The introductory sermon was preached by Eld M. E. Miller. The packed house heartily enjoyed the earnest, forceful sermon. His subject was, God's Appropriation Essential to Success, found in Num. 14:8.

There was a full attendance, all the 37 churches being represented by messenger or letter. The absence of some of the ministers and visitors was notable. We greatly missed representatives of our denominational interests. Mrs. Hinkle of Louisville organized a Woman's Missionary Union, J. B. Hubbard of Ky., successfully presented the claims of the Western Recorder. The officers, Carl Henderson and the writer were re-elected by acclamation.

The reports from the churches showed advance over last year in membership and contributions. The discussions of the reports were inspiring and instinctive. A resolution looking to every Sunday Services among the churches was passed. Sermons by Elds. Summers, Hyde, Pierce and Gibbs, during sessions of the body, greatly edified and delighted the people attending. The hospitality of the church and community was superabounding. We meet next year with Macedonia church Lyon county.—R. A. Larue.

HAS RIGHT TO LIE SAYS PRESIDING JUDGE

Man in Love Cannot be Held to Strict Accountability For His Statement

New York, Aug. 26.—That a man who is in love is privileged to lie was the ruling handed down by Supreme Court Justice Gay.

To quote the justice:

"I is also a well known principle that in the state of mental exaltation accompanying courtship, statements made as to mental, moral or financial qualifications of the accused may not be too closely scrutinized, nor shall they be held to strict accountability therefor."

In such state of mental exaltation Philip Cusick while courting the woman he afterwards married, told her, she avers, he was earning $30. a week, while as a matter of fact he was a property boy at a theatre with a weekly salary of $13.50. Later when Cusick vanished Mrs. Cusick applied for a divorce, counsel fees and alimony.

Justice Guy ruling accompanied his refusal of the request for alimony.

SMALL COUNTY HOSPITALS PROVDIED FOR KENTUCKY

FULTON COUNTY TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL, GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y.
This is a remodeled farmhouse. The entire cost, the small farm included, was about $9,500. It provides accommodation for 13 incipient cases in wards and 4 advanced cases in separate rooms.

The law creating the Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission at the last legislature provides also a plan for the building of small hospitals throughout the state for the proper treatment of tuberculosis. The plan in brief is as follows: The Fiscal Court of any county may declare that county a district for the purpose of building a hospital. Or, by petition, the question may be submitted to a vote of the people at any regular election, and, if carried, it is then the duty of the Fiscal Court to declare the county a district. Any group of counties touching one another may declare themselves a single district for this purpose by a vote at any general election which carries in each of the counties involved. Then, under certain restrictions in the law, the State Commission names a considerable group of citizens, men and women, of the county or counties involved, from which group the judges of these counties name a District Board of Tuberculosis Hospital Trustees. This Board then asks of the Fiscal Court funds to be raised in the regular levy of taxes. From these funds a site is selected, subject to the approval of the State Commission, and then the Board proceeds to erect the hospital. The State Commission is given a very general oversight of the future activities of the Board, and the construction and maintenance of the hospital. Patients are to be received from the district, either free or for a weekly charge, according to their financial condition, and the cost of maintenance not met by these charges must be paid by the district.

This is not so expensive a plan as it looks. After the construction of a reasonably substantial building for the purpose of administration, the cooking and serving of meals, and the housing of the nurses, the building or buildings for the actual housing of the consumptives can be more cheaply erected than those for any similar hospital purpose, because the patients are made to live and sleep in the open air, or on verandas; very small, cheaply constructed buildings are sufficient for the purpose. The whole campaign against tuberculosis is based, not on sympathy, but on economics. Practically all of the sufferers are between the ages of 15 and 50, nearly all of them housewives or wage-earners, and many of them the parents of children. You can serve your community and insure yourself in no better way than by advocating the building of such an institution. Every cent it costs is more than returned by the distress it relieves and the poverty it prevents.

Game Rooster Saves Boy From Fangs of a Snake.

Steubenville, Ohio, Aug. 26.—When "Pete," a big game cock, ran to greet his three year old playmate, Harry Finley, in the yard of Frank Finley's home the other morning, he was confronted by a large copper head snake which had backed his head preparatory to burying his fangs in the face of the little lad, who was at play.

"Pete" took in the situation at a glance, and without a moment's hesitation the big rooster was at the reptile:

Dashing in and out, dodging and leaping, "Pete" warily watched for an opening, and like a flash drove his spur into the brain of the snake.

Mrs. Finley, mother of the child, had seen the latter part of the battle from an upstairs window; but before she could reach the scene of the conflict "Pete" had made his kill and crowed a victory.

New York, August 27.—Miss Margaret Wesley, 21 years old, was killed Monday at Edgemere, L. I., when the wet skirt of her bathing suit caused a short circuit with the third rail of the Long Island Railroad tracks, which she was crossing to reach her home.

While in the surf Miss Wesley was taken with a chill and hastily started for home. She had to cross three tracks with the third rail of each unprotected.

Having crossed one track she was about to step between the third rail of the middle track when the current leaped to her wet skirt from the live rail of the middle track.

FACTS

Local Evidence.

Evidence that can be verified. Fact is what we want. Opinion is not enough. Opinions differ. Here's a Marion fact. You can test it. Thomas L. Hillyard, Railroad street, Marion, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills came to my rescue after I had suffered a great deal and had spent much money for medicine without any benefit. I was taken with an attack of typhoid fever and upon recovering, found that my kidneys were badly disordered. The pains in my back were so severe that frequently I had to leave my work and lie down for several hours. There was a constant desire to pass the kidney secretions and on several times during the night. The kidney secretions were highly colored and the passages were attended with pain. I often became dizzy and saw spots floating before my eyes. A relative, hearing about my condition, advised me to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. I procured a supply at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store and they cured me in less than two months. For over two years I have had no sign of the old complaint. I am bound to look upon the cure as a permanent one."

MINERS KILLED WHEN CAR DROPS DOWN INCLINE.

Cable Snaps And Sends Men to Death at Foot of 3,300
Foot Grade.

Clifton, Ariz., August 18.—Nine men were killed and one probably fatally hurt late last night when a cable car snapped at the Coronado mine and two ore cars, carrying twelve tons of ore and thirteen miners, dashed down a thirty eight degree grade for 3,300 feet.

The cars had been lowered over the brink of the grade, one of the longest and steepest in the world, when the pin holding the cable attached to the cars snapped, the safety chains broke and the cars started downward.

Three men rolled off, but nine of those who remained on the cars were killed, while the other was so seriously injured that he is expected to die.

Among the dead were Mining Engineer Schaeffer and E. M. Jones, an electrician.

Ballard's SNOW LINIMENT

Is the Right Remedy for All
Abrasions of the Flesh.

If the wound is cleaned and the liniment applied promptly, the healing process begins at once and the wound heals from the inside outwardly, thus performing a perfect cure that leaves no scar. If the wound heals on the outside too quickly, pus forms under the surface and breaks out into a running sore that is hard to cure and inevitably leaves a bad scar.

Owners of blooded stock prefer this liniment to all others for that reason, and they use it not only on fine animals, but on human flesh, as it does its work quickly and thoroughly.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Dear Sir:

In a recent issue the Whitesburg, Ky. Eagle printed the following paragraph:

"What was there in the Webb Bill anyhow? Intoxicants in any quantity are being shipped and delivered here and a number of our best as well as our most useful citizens are going fast to destruction."

The Webb law was advocated by the Anti-Saloon League, and a great deal of money, contributed by prohibitionists, was spent in forcing its passage. Those who backed the bill claimed that it was intended to prevent the shipping of liquor into "dry" territory, but, at the same time, assured the lawmakers that there was nothing in the Webb bill to prevent the shipping of into "dry" territory for personal use.

For a time after the passage of the Webb law some of the express companies and railroads doubted their ability to carry liquor into "dry" territory, but a thorough examination of the law, backed up by decisions of the courts, showed conclusively that the Webb law was toothless measure and that it was never intended to be enforced in such a way as to prevent the individual from obtaining alcoholic beverages in "dry" States or counties.

The Anti-Saloon League never has tried to prevent the use of liquor and is on record to that effect.

From time to time we have challenged the Anti-Saloon League and all other advocates of prohibition to favor a law to put a penalty of fine and imprisonment upon those who possess or use liquor in "dry" territory, or who cause liquor to be shipped to them in "dry" territory. The prohibitionists have invariably replied that they had no intention of trying to keep liquor away from people who want it.

We do not believe in prohibition but we do believe in regulation.

The prohibitionists do not believe in real prohibition and are as much opposed to it as we are. The main difference is that they oppose regulation and want the liquor business to be conducted illegally instead of legally.

If real prohibition is wanted, it cannot be expected from the Anti-Saloon League or the leaders of the prohibition movement, because real prohibition would kill prohibition agitation and agitation is what the prohibition movement and its advocates thrive on. The leaders are out for self and power. They want to keep on swapping cheap talk for loose change, and therefore, they are against any plan to solve the liquor problem.

Yours very truly,

T. M. Gilmore,
President National Model License League.

NEGRO SOUGHT BY POSSE KILLS SELF

Body of Suspected Slayer of Girl Found.

Lexington, Mo., Aug. 25.—The body of George Winkfield, the negro accused of the murder of Estelle Potter, the 14-year-old girl here Tuesday, was found late yesterday afternoon in the Missouri river near here. The negro had committed suicide by cutting his throat.

Apparently the negro had stood in the water when he cut his throat, as the arteries were completely severed. A number of men from Lexington identified the body, which was badly decomposed. Sheriff Wadell said he believed the negro had killed himself the same day he murdered Estelle Potter.

The finding of the body ended one of the most exciting man hunts this section has ever experienced. Since the finding Tuesday afternoon of the child, her throat cut from ear to ear, the whole county has been alive with armed bands of farmers determined to take the law into their own hands.

The temper of the searchers was shown when a suspect was arrested at Hardin. Although the negro was hurried to Norborne, supposedly in secret, ten minutes after his arrival a mob of 200 howling farmers were outside the Norborne Jail. Only the pacifying words of a deputy sheriff prevented the crowd from taking the suspect from the officers. Half an hour later Sheriff Wadell arrived from Lexington and as he could not identify the negro as Winkfield, the suspect was released.

Estelle Potter quarreled with Winkfield, who was employed on the Potter farm, on Monday when she ordered him to peel some peaches. The negro obeyed in anger. The next morning the negro saddled the child's pony for her trip to summer school, which she was attending, but did not return to the Potter house, as had been his custom. When Estelle failed to return from school, a search was made. In a ravine half a mile from the Potter home, the child's body was found.

Flees Maw of Fish

to be Eaten by Cat

Montclair, N. J., Aug. 24.—Warren H. Spangles of Montclair while fishing in Greenwood Lake, landed a four-pound bass that excited the envy of his companions.

The party remained on the lake for an hour, and the big bass continued to show signs of life that puzzled the anglers. When camp was reached Spangler cut the fish open and jumped a live field mouse.

It appeared to be feeble, but made a brave attempt to get away. It had not gone two ft, however, when the camp cat pounced upon it and ate it.

ABOUT MEXICO.

Mexico is a little more than three times as large as Texas. It is one of the richest countries in the world, both in its mineral and agricultural resources.

The population of Mexico is 12,000,000. Twenty per cent of these constitute the governing class. As a result, three million people hold all the offices, do all the voting, make all the money and control all the other advantages of civilization as presently known.

Among the beverages and several other products are spoken of in Mexico.

A great part of the Mexican population is made up of Indians, who are given their choice of work or of joining the army.

A great part of the Mexican population cannot read or write.

The Mexicans possess 4,800,000 head of cattle, the only people who have in Mexico. The government class and the Indians—numbering 7,200,000—are doing leading an idle and aimless life, while the peons are content to exist from one day to another.

The average Mexican knows nothing about honor, is essentially treacherous, an assassin and a blood-thirsty murderer by hereditary association.

It would be an easy matter for the United States to conquer Mexico, but the Mexicans are not worth anything themselves. They are thoroughly undesirable citizens and it would be better to let them than to naturalize them.—Providence Enterprise.

Big Water Power Dam Is Built In Iowa.

Keokuk, Iowa, Aug. 27.—The largest water power dam in the world will be dedicated here next Tuesday. The plant, built at a cost of $27,000,000 in the Mississippi river where the states of Iowa, Illinois and Missouri join, is expected to develop 300,000 horsepower.

The dam, stretching ninety-ninths of a mile across the river, is 53 feet high, 42 feet wide on the bottom and 29 feet wide at the top. It consists of 119 arches, each 30 feet between 6 foot piers. In each span is a spillway 32 feet high, topped by a steel gate 11 feet high. By opening and closing a variable number of these gates the water at the dam is kept at a certain height and sufficient water for navigation below is always passed through the dam.

The water power, converted into electricity is for use in the new power zone along the Mississippi extending from Burlington, Iowa to St. Louis, the latter city taking 60,000 horse power of current.

In order not to obstruct navigation on the river the power company has built a lock which is to be property of the United States government. It has the same width as the Panama Canal locks and a lift one-third higher than any one lock on the isthmus.

The power house is one-third of a mile long and contains thirty of the largest turbines ever built. The lake above the dam has an area of 100 square miles and its water is kept at a constant level by the operation of gates in the dam. It has been named Lake Cooper in honor of Hugh L. Cooper, chief engineer of the water power company.

Evil Turkey Trot and Tan-Go Condemned by Bishop.

"There is no need of my issuing a formal regulation regarding the immoral dances now in vogue," said the Rt. Rev. Dennis O'Donnoghue, D.D., bishop of Louisville, when shown a dispatch stating that Archbishop Moeller, of Cincinnati, and Bishop Byrne, of Nashville, had forbidden priests to absolve persons who engaged in those objectionable dances.

"Almighty God, and not bishops, forbade immorality and all other sin and every Catholic knows full well that every sin of impurity, whether it be of deed or look or thought, is against the laws of God. What else do they need? These dances, the tango, the turkey trot, the bunny hug, and the rest of them are immoral and every Catholic who dances them know that he is committing a mortal sin, trampling the laws of God beneath foot, liable himself to eternal damnation and giving bad example to those outside of the church. What need, therefore, is there for me to condemn them when God has forbidden them along with all sin and every thing that leads to sin?

"There often are mistakes in the way in which these things are given out," continued the bishop, "As I have said before, the plain fact in the case is that any immoral dance or anything else that causes a man or woman to forfeit what Jesus Christ purchased by the shedding of his precious blood is a mortal sin. That is all there is to it and every child in our parochial schools knows what that means.

"Now it's all right to warn the people against an evil that is doing harm at a certain time, as these dances now are, but to say that a person who sins by dancing them cannot be forgiven is simply not true. Murder and theft and lust and every other sin can be forgiven, if the person is penitent; that is, if he is truly sorry for the sin, purges to mend his life and to avoid the occasion of his fall from the grace of God. In the present case it would mean that one who had sinned by dancing these immoral dances would have to quit dancing them, else his repentance is not sincere.

"In this case the confession and the absolution and the whole thing is void, but it does not require a bishop or a priest to tell our people this. They learn it as soon as they learn their A B C's.

"If a formal condemnation of these dances were needed, why most assuredly, I would have to condemn them. Turkey trotting and pig trotting and horse trotting are all right for turkeys and horses and pigs, but they are not the things for men and women, and especially for those who have been redeemed by the blood of Christ, and who know the law of God, as Catholics do. The Catholic who has to be told this is a poor Catholic, if one at all. He needs to study his catechism, that's all. God help him.

"I believe that the whole trouble in this matter is that it has not been properly presented to the non-Catholic public by certain newspapers. I hope however, that is now clear."—Courier Journal.

The Coming Of The Show.

Sept. 23 will be show day in Marion, the day which makes the world young and kin. Every household will be alive early on account of it and the country cousin, arrayed in his best, will come in on the highways and byways with refreshing glory and abundance.

The fine big special train of Sun Brothers is due here before dawn on Sept. 23 and the usual army of curious will no doubt be at the railroad yards to greet them. As tented show men are known as hustlers, it won't take them long to unload the enormous equipment, horses, elephants and animals and assemble them at the show grounds at Marion.

Performances will be given in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and at night at 8 o'clock. There are no conventional numbers in the big Imperial program that will be offered. Because the hundred or more men, women and children performers are masters in their varied feats and accomplishments and bring refinement and diversion to their work. Besides the human superiority of this season's exhibition, there is a unique and wonderful trained animal display. The Sun Troupe of acting and musical elephants; educated monkeys and dogs; cleverly trained ponies; a coterie of blue ribboned cake walking horses; these are all classy features of the huge programme.

In the wild beast and zoologic department are many cages and dens containing a rare and valuable collection of wild animals. Everything of worth in this field will be seen and exhibited.

All of the tents are of modern build and at night time they are brilliantly illuminated. The show comes highly recommended for its absolute cleanliness and entire freedom from gawks, gamblers and ticket scalpers. In fact the only way that you can spend your money around the show is through legitimate channels. From the looks of things Sept. 23 will be one of the biggest show days in the history of Marion.

My Portion.

Thou art my portion forever,
Greet God of all the earth,
So dear to my heart, and precious,
All else is of little worth.

Thou art my portion forever,
I chose Thee in my youth,
I turned from the world and its foolies,

To walk in the way of truth.

Thou art my portion forever,
And then in years mature,
Thou didst crown me with joy and gladness.

Thou art my portion forever,
I have reached the top of life's hill,
On the shady side now am descending
But thou art with me still.

Thou art my portion forever,
And should I live to be old,
I will lean heavily upon Thee,
And sweetly abide in thy fold.

Thou art my portion forever,
Then death with stern demand,
Cannot affright nor alarm me,
My life is in thy hand.

Thou art my portion forever,
My portion in Heaven at last,
Growing dearer, sweeter and richer,
Then earthly things are past.

Prisoner Jumps from Train, But is Caught.

Goshen, Ind., Aug. 26.—In spite of handcuffed wrists, August Smith jumped from a lavatory window of a Lake Shore train as it passed through here today, but effected only a temporary escape from Gus Schari, a Wisconsin Sheriff, who telephoned back from the train's next stop at Elkhart, ten miles away, and effected a rearrest of the prisoner through local police. Smith was injured in jumping from the train and was apprehended when he stopped at a saw mill to demand a file for cutting his handcuffs off.

Snake Breaks Up A Golf Match By Appetite.

Hutchinson, Kan., Aug. 26.—In a match play for the McKinney golf trophy in the midsummer tournament of the Hutchinson Country club, between Pryor and Joe Schwinn, the latter lost on the seventeenth hole when a bullsnake swallowed his golf ball. Later the snake was run down and killed.

Schwinn was one up on Combs at the seventeenth hole and his approach shot seemed to be within a shot put, with a certainty of winning, when the snake was seen to wriggle across the green and before players or caddies could reach him had swallowed the ball and made off into the rocks and grass. Combs won the hole and took the next winning.

BIBLE STUDY ON

GOD'S COVENANT AT MOUNT SINAI.

Exodus 19:1-6—Aug. 31.
"Let us have grace, whereby we may offer service well-pleasing to God with reverence and awe."—Hebrews 12:28 R. V.

TWO months after the Passover deliverance, the Israelites arrived at Mt. Sinai; but on their way they had two valuable lessons respecting God's grace and power. At Rephidim, Moses in the name of the Lord smote the rock, and from it gushed water, abundantly refreshing Israel, and as a rivulet followed them through much of their subsequent journey. St. Paul, by inspiration declares that the rock represented Christ, that the smiting of the rock represented the putting of Christ to shame; death, but that only thus is the Water of Life provided for whoever will drink.

Israel journeyed on, but encountered new obstacles. The Amalekites, a warlike people, considered Israel's coming as an invasion of their country, and attacked them. Naturally Israel was at a disadvantage. Yet God gave them the victory. Moses, upon a high hill, lifted his hands in prayer for the people. While he did so, success was theirs; but when he ceased thus to pray, Amalek prevailed. Aaron and Hur assisted in holding up Moses' hands until the battle terminated successfully for Israel. God thus indicated that without Moses they could do nothing.

The Royal Priesthood Proffered. God's dealings with Israel were in accord with His great covenant with Abraham—"In thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." Neither Moses nor his followers could possibly have understood the full import of this great covenant promise; for it is double, the spiritual portion being hidden until the First Advent. Even so, then, St. Paul assures us, it is a hidden mystery, appreciated by few.

The Promise is divided into three parts: (1) Abraham (and all the Ancient Worthies, whom he represented) was to have a share; (2) Abraham's Seed was to be the channel of blessing; and (3) all the families of the earth were to be blessed through these channels. But only by the light of the Holy Spirit during this Gospel Age are these depths of the Abrahamic covenant manifest.

While the Israelites knew that they were the natural heirs of the promise, it was proper that they also know that they would be unsuitable in blessing the other nations with God's Law unless they could both keep it. So a Law Covenant was made with them, and Moses appointed its mediator.

Typical of New Covenant. St. Paul, in Hebrews 12:18-24, points us to the antitype of today's lesson. As Israel was delivered from Pharaoh and his hosts, so ultimately mankind will be delivered from Satan and his fallen angels, and from all evil influences. As Israel's journey brought them to Mt. Sinai and the Law Covenant, so the journey of God's people will bring all the faithful to Mt. Zion, God's Kingdom.

Meanwhile, Jesus has become the antitype of Moses, leader of the people, in harmony with Jehovah's Program. He has been selecting joint-heirs. St. Paul explains this, saying, "God gave Jesus to be the Head over the church, which is His body." See St. Peter's explanation of "Prophet like unto Moses" in Acts 3:22, 23, 19:21.

The antitype of our lesson will be the inauguration of the New Covenant, at the Second Advent of Jesus. The basis of this better Covenant was completed at Calvary. Our Lord has since been completing His "better sacrifices" by presenting the bodies of His saints to God. (Romans 12:1.) Soon the "better sacrifices" will be completed, and the greater Mediator raised up from among the brethren. Then will follow the inauguration of the New Covenant, to bless all the families of the earth with Restoration.

St. Paul points out that we are approaching "the General Assembly and Church whose names are written in Heaven." He declares that we may expect stirring scenes. As at Sinai the literal mountain shook, lightnings flashed, and God's voice was heard as the sound of a great trumpet, so here the trumpet will be the seventh trumpet, the trump of God. The storm and shaking typify the shaking of the ecclesiastical heavens and the social, political and financial earth. "All things that can be shaken shall be removed, as of things that are made."—Hebrews 12:27.

The Apostle assures us that only the unshakable things will remain. That is, the Messianic Kingdom will completely overturn everything not in harmony with righteousness. This is merely a prelude to the great Covenant, then to be ushered in for the blessing of mankind.

Up And Down The Race & Did This Electric

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 26.—Mrs. J. A. Caswell and daughter Miss Mary, were driving in their electric runabout yesterday, but when they got ready to stop the machine persisted in continuing to the go. So they went along with the car, trying to stop it by various means, until it came to a standstill.

They grew tired of the enforced ride and headed the electric up steep hill. Miss Caswell applied the brakes and reduced the speed so that her mother could jump out. She telephoned her husband to head off the machine and when the girl drove up the hill again he hopped in and the girl jumped out. Mr. Caswell taking a turn in the run away. He drove up one street and down another. Dinner time came and passed and still the car rolled merrily on.

After about four hours the battery was exhausted and, adding insult to injury, the car "died" on the outskirts of the town, making Mr. Caswell walk several blocks to his home.

Babes in Woods Found at Last.

Muscogee, Okla., Aug. 25.—After tramping two days over the mountains without, Little Oran Trammel, the three yr. old boy who wandered away from a construction camp at Woodstan, was found about 10 o'clock last night by James Payne, an old hunter. Payne today spurned the reward of $500 offered by J. T. Trammel, the child's father. Last Tuesday the Trammel child and Ruby Thompson, aged 4 years became lost. Searching parties scoured all the surrounding country and found the little girl the next day curled up under a big tree six miles from home. She told the searchers that the boy had dropped from exhaustion early in the morning, and she left him.

Payne immediately trailed her steps backward and found the boys tracks. After following the trail over Eagle and Kiamichi mountains, he became upon the child asleep beside the trail. The country through which the children wandered is infested with wolves and wildcats, but they escaped injury.

Payne made a sling of his shirt and brought the boy back to camp early today. The child told him he had had nothing to eat since he left home.

COMA 16 DAYS

And Girl is Gradually Returning to Life.

New York, Aug. 29.—Jeanette Guttman, who for sixteen days been in a trance in a private hospital in No. 2011 Madison avenue, is awakening. Dr. Herman Reichman, who is striving to stir the girl of 13 from her strange coma, saw her eyes were slightly open. In her cheeks a faint red appeared. Examination disclosed other signs the child was returning to life.

Nourishment was hurried to the girl, and she swallowed it for the first time since losing consciousness. Her condition led the physician to express confidence recovery would follow the passing of the trance. He said:

"She is not conscious, but semi-conscious. For instance, although the eyes are beginning to open, she cannot recognize any one yet, although in a day or two she will be able to. Now that she can swallow she will receive nourishment twice daily.

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he shall be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially so in the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Camden, N. Conductor Van Marter, puzzled by the strange flight of his passengers, halted the train and held it until McCrosson returned.

"I'm glad I got em," wheezed McCrosson, as he pulled himself into the vestibule.

"Got What?" anxiously asked the conductor.

"My teeth," replied McCrosson. "I sneezed just before we got to Delanco and they hopped right out of my mouth and fell on the track."

Costly Treatment.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all dealers.

NEGRO WOMAN CLAIMS ESTATE.

Says She is Wife of Dead Chicagoan.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 26.—The late William H. Lee, head of the publishing firm of Laird & Lee, who lived in Chicago as a white man, and died apparently with out heirs, was claimed in the probate court by Mrs. Lucinda Anderson, colored, of Benton Harbor, Mich., as her husband.

In a petition filed for Mrs. Anderson, it is alleged that the publisher's real name was William A. Anderson, that he was a negro, though of light complexion, and that he deserted Mrs. Anderson thirty years ago.

The latter lays claim to the estate of the publisher. It was valued at first at $200,000, but as much of it was in plates of value to Lee's business alone the valuation has been estimated at $20,000.

Lee, or Anderson, never talked of his personal affairs, and his antecedents were a complete mystery when he died. Mrs. Anderson makes the identification by means of newspaper photographs which she has seen. The body will be exhumed to allow her to confirm her identification.

Stepping on a rusty nail has been the cause of many cases of lockjaw. The nail was not so much the fault as neglect of the wound. KIND WORDS.

BY JAMES R. GLASS.

Kind words spoken last much longer. Sink deeper, stick closer, grow stronger.

Than any printed words of book, Than any gesture, smile or look.

Kind words with us surely able To help in need to stem the tide Of misfortune, sorely pressed, They help the poor and the distressed.

So let us speak the kindly word, And speak it so it can be heard By those who are in sore, dire need, That they may hear in time to heed.

Then we can feel that 'tis not in vain To live and move and walk with men, To study, sacrifice and work, To go our duty, not to shrink.

The speaking kindly words today, And strewing flowers by the way, Is like a large and brilliant star That lights our pathway from afar.

Only a word to some one spoken Just as a kindly, helpful token— A very little thing indeed— That will help in time of need.

It gives to us new life and hope; It cheers us, and we can not moan— These words in life that are so few, Are to the soul like morning dew.

These words will linger with us long; They make us feel happy and strong; They make us feel we have a friend; They make us want our life to mend.

Kind words, when spoken to the weak Help them the kindly word to speak; Help them on in their weary life To bear the struggle, toil and strife.

Help them to turn away from sin, With full purpose new life begin; From forbidden paths turn aside, And by the Savior's word be guided.

To turn away from vice and crime, Reform the life, reclaim the time; From former days, so ill spent, To change his ways his life is bent.

They touch a sympathetic chord, And turn the mind toward the Lord, And tune the mind to sing His praise, And for the Christ our voices raise.

The gracious, kindly word we choose, Is like the dew drop on the rose, It is to the soul like a balm, 'Twill heal and cool and soothe and calm.

Kind words are like the silver bells, And, as the music in them swells, To our spirits they sweetly sing, And in our ears they grandly ring.

Kind words, like the flowers of spring, Pleasure and sweetness to us bring; Soothe and calm the aching heart, And heal and cool the wounds that smart.

A gracious word spoken in due time, Whether it be in prose or rhyme, May save some one from dark despair And entitle him to heaven's share.

Like the rain to the thirsty earth, They give us life and joy and mirth; They are good for the hungry soul, And make us better on the whole.

Kindly words are God's thoughts in bloom; They lend to us their sweet perfume, And leave behind them lasting good: A help for us they always stood.

A kindly word is like the stream, Gliding like hope or passing dream, Between its green and mossy banks— It sings, and raises joyful thanks.

The good they do will never end; To good and right they always tend, And cheerful make our life, and light, Sweet and wholesome, joyful and bright.

And, if we will look, we shall find That God the Creator is behind 'The impulse to which they are due,— We are sorry they are so few.

PRESBYTERIANS

Report Shows Remarkable Progress In Membership And Finance.

Presbyterians have put out figures to prove that they now attained the largest membership in their history, that their growth last year was the largest in a generation, and that money gifts have kept pace. Their home mission society is now the largest home agency in the world. The large Presbyterian body, that of the North, has now 1,415,890 members. The increase last year was 39,000.

Money gifts last year were $26,293,890, the largest amount of any single body in America. These gifts show a gain of $4,300,000 in the past five years. The amount of money given last year in benevolence was $5,000,000, which is also the largest of any single body in America. It costs $18,835,000 to maintain all Presbyterian churches. One home society received last year $1,923,300, not included in the sum just named. It is this society that is the largest home in the world.

Seattle, Wash., has the largest single church, the Fifth Avenue in this city being second, and Philadelphia exceeds New York in numbers. Pittsburgh follows closely both in numbers and gifts. It is only in gifts to missions that New York makes a showing ahead of others named. —New York Times.

JOHNNY GREEN WILL FLY AGAIN AT CHATTANOOGA

Green's Cardui Flyer.

Chattanooga, August 20.—The Chairman of the Grand Army Entertainment Committee, has closed a contract with Johnny Green, famous Cardui birdman and water-fowl, to make three flights in Chattanooga during the G. A. R. Reunion, to be held in Chattanooga September 15-20.

Green is the man who made the record flight in Cardui Flyer No. 1 over Lookout Mountain during the U. C. V. Reunion last May. He was the first man to attempt that dangerous flight, refused by so many other prominent aviators. A feature of his exhibition next month will be a flight in his Cardui No. 2, equipped with hydroplanes, up the Tennessee River. This will be the first hydroplane flight ever made by any Southern aviator.

Visitors to the G. A. R. Reunion will do well not to miss these flights by the famous aviator, free to all, and should look out for the dollar bills, which he drops among the crowds below, as he goes hurling through the air.

BABY HEALTH CONTEST AT FAIR

Will be One of Many Novelties of Especial Interest to Ladies

PROMINENT WOMEN HERE

Exhibits Will Show What Perfect Baby Should Be—Mrs. John L. Woodbury, of Louisville, Will Answer All Inquiries Regarding Details of Contest.

A new feature announced for the coming Kentucky State Fair is the Baby Health Contest, and already it has attracted a great deal of attention. This contest is modeled after those which have been so successful in other states, notably Iowa. The contest in this state was first inaugurated in 1911 by the Iowa branch of the National Congress of Mothers, with Mrs. Mary P. Watts in charge.

The Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs has been asked to co-operate with the Kentucky State Fair, and the chairman of their Health Department, Mrs. Lafon Riker, associated with Mrs. George Grant and Mrs. Herbert Ottenheimer, of the Health Committee, will act in an advisory capacity.

Uniformity is absolutely essential in the examination and marking of the children in order to secure any results of value in a nation-wide movement. The score card, so long and universally used, is such a basis for uniformity that its exclusive use is very important in this work and it has accordingly been adopted by Kentucky.

The prizes will be of comparatively small amount or value. To offer valuable prizes, or to permit such offers by newspapers, baby food manufacturers, photographers, or others interested in advertising themselves or their business, would excite the cupid of parents, cause a scramble for gain instead of a search for knowledge, and endanger and tend to commercialize the whole movement.

The Baby's Health Contest at the coming Kentucky State Fair will be in charge of Mrs. John L. Woodbury, of Louisville, who will be glad to answer all inquiries regarding the work.

RACING EVENTS SCHEDULED FOR STATE FAIR.

Stars of the Track to Compete for Rich Stakes—Classy Trotting and Racing Promised for Show.

The eleventh annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville next September 15-20, promises a celebration of a magnitude, excellence and general interest that has never heretofore been eclipsed by a like event, and no phase of the fair will offer a more universal attraction than the racing program which has been arranged.

The Early Closing Events for trotters and pacers, entries for which closed May 15, includes the unprecedented enlistment of 126 contestants, a roster which is fully 40 per cent larger than any heretofore recorded, and which, it is said, numbers some of the classiest examples of horse flesh the country can boast.

There are a half dozen stakes for which these horses will compete, the first two being $500 trotting events for two and three-year olds, and the remainder $1,000 stakes for 2:11 and 2:10 pacers and 2:14 and 2:20 trotters.

In addition to the trotting and pacing events, the fair will offer daily running races, with entries including some of the classiest and speediest horse flesh then stabling at the Douglas Park track in preparation for the fall race meet, which immediately follows the week of the State Fair.

Feature of Closing Day.

The feature of paramount interest on the closing day of the fair will be the Gentlemen's Cup Race. The Brewers' Association has donated a silver cup as trophy to the winner of this race.

Entries for the purse races for trotters and pacers will not close until a week prior to the opening of the fair. The purses for these events are $500 each, evenly divided among the trotters and pacers. The list will include 2:12, 2:16, 2:18 and 2:24 trotters and 2:12, 2:14, 2:18 and a free-for-all in the pacing class.

The entire track program for the coming fair has been arranged with a view to variety, and lovers of good, clean sport and of royally-bred animals may anticipate one of the most pretentious exhibitions in the history of the state.

The Kentucky State Fair track is rated as one of the finest ever laid, and the recently-enlarged grand stand offers an ideal mecca for sociability, as well as sporting recreation.

This contest, which is open to farm boys and students of any agricultural college, is a splendid incentive to scientific farming, and there is nothing so deeply interesting to the future "one and sinner" of the state as the opportunity to demonstrate their practical knowledge as tillers of the soil and breeders of fine stock.

A special donation of $25 in gold has been made by J. B. Bowles, of Bardonia, Ky., in the saddle horse judging contest, and D. H. Ewing & Sons, of Louisville, Ky., have given $25 as a prize for the best boy judge of dairy cattle.

ANDY WOODALL

Talks Of Long Ago At Princeton

WALKED FROM VIRGINIA HERE

Eighty-Two Years Ago at the Age of Five Years.

Mr. Anderson Woodall, of Crittenden county, near Crayneville, who has been here on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. E. N. Crayne, the past several days, paid this office a pleasant and interesting visit yesterday morning.

Mr. Woodall is to his eighty-seventh year, and during his talk with us stated that he walked to Princeton with a younger brother eighty-two years ago from Pennsylvania county, about eight miles from Richmond. Mr. Woodall said the use of an old four-horse Virginia wagon by his parents in moving to Kentucky necessitated he and his little brother walking all the way here except when they came to creeks they could not wade, and it took them seven weeks to make the trip.

Mr. Woodall stated that he had just come in from a drive over Princeton with Mr. J. A. Stegar and that he found a vast difference in the Princeton of now and the Princeton of long ago, that is eighty-two years ago, which he says was then a mere place in the road, or the size of Crider, perhaps a little larger.

His father was James Woodall and his mother was, before her marriage, Miss Ellen Dece. His father died shortly after coming to Kentucky in what is now Crittenden county and his mother lived to be ninety and a half years old. He was the eldest of several children, all of whom save one brother, John Woodall, who now resides in Seattle, Wash., as does also several children, of our subject, Anderson Woodall, who was the mainstay of his widowed mother up to her death.

Mr. Woodall was reared a Democrat, but has been a Republican since the Civil war. His youngest brother died during the Civil war at Russellville as a Union soldier from an attack of measles. He stated that a very strange coincidence occurred in which his mother told her brother, a preacher, that her son was dead, and upon being told that she must be mistaken, she said, "no, he's dead, I've seen him." Some days afterward she received the report of his death.

Mr. Woodall is a clever and interesting old gentleman, and while he has been a little inactive since an attack of typhoid fever two years ago, followed by complications, he is still quite skittish. He has over a hundred grand and great-grand children. —Princeton Leader.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

Real applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear, there is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. The mucous lining of the Eustachian tube, when this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give the Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness cured by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Camp Meeting.

Our hens are cackling all around, Fresh eggs, are selling high.
Good butter, forty cents per pound, Camp meetin's drawin' nigh.

The crops are growin' very well, Our corn is all laid by,
And now we've got a breathin' spell, Camp meetin's drawin' nigh.

Late corn is in the roasin' ear, Tomatoes, ripe and red,
The crop of fruit is fine this year, There'll be no lack of bread.

The drouth may cut the grazin' short But there's oats and a little rye,
But we can praise the Lord and shout, Camp meetin's drawin' nigh.

I want to hear them good old sounds, To wait my soul on high,
"We're travelin' through Immanuel grounds," Camp meetin's drawin' nigh.

We'll bless the Lord, I see 'em now, All kneelin' around the stand,
With consecrating prayers and vow I feel the Promised Land.

The preachin' has the old time ring, And fairer worlds on high,
Break on my vision while they sing, Camp meetin's drawing nigh.

Washed in the blood my soul shall rise, To mansions in the sky,
And dwell with Christ in Paradise, At the meetin' by and by.

GOOD-BYE KISS BRINGS

DEATH TO FATHER

In Kissing Baby He Drops Pistol From Pocket And it is Discharged.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Wells Boyd, member of a prominent family, was accidentally shot and killed here this morning in a peculiar manner.

He was preparing to leave his home for his office and as he leaned down to kiss his baby good-bye a pistol which he carried in a holster fell to the floor and was discharged, the bullet passing through his heart, causing instant death.

Mr. Boyd was a son of Dr. A. W. Boyd and local agent of a motorcycle company. He was an amateur motorcycle racer and prominent in business circles.

Important Announcement and Appeal.

The Kentucky Institution for the Education of the Blind is the eighth oldest in the nation, founded in 1842, colored department opened in 1884.

Probably it is the most successful, having perfect sanitation, lowest death rate and never a fatal accident.

It is a part of the Educational System of the State; a FREE boarding school for the blind of school age; children do not have to be totally blind; all with defective eyesight, such as would prevent successful study in a seeing school, are eligible.

Girls are taught Writing (pencil, point and typewriting,) shop work; sewing (machine and hand,) spelling, reading, piano-tuning, physiology music (vocal and instrumental) knitting, kindergarten, harmony, history, grammar, geography, (general and physical,) English literature, drawing, cooking, and domestic duties, arithmetic and algebra.

Boys are taught the same; also, broom-making, chair-caning, mattress-making and piano-making.

The graduates from the institution hold important positions in several States.

POSTMASTER IS ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

Government Postal Inspector Swears To Warrant Charging Ford's Ferry Postmaster with Fraud.

James L. Rankin, for many years postmaster at Ford's Ferry, a little village in the northwestern part of Crittenden county, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy United States Marshal Elwood Neel. He is charged with the misappropriation of several hundred dollars of government funds while serving in his official capacity.

Rankin was taken to Hopkinsville, Ky., by Marshal Neel, where he waived an examining trial before United States Commissioner A. H. Clark and entered a plea of "not guilty." Rankin was released on a $500 bond. His trial will probably be called before Judge Walter Evans in United States district court here next November.

The warrant against Rankin was sworn out by T. M. Milligan, postal inspector for Western Kentucky.—Paducah News Democrat.

This Dog Knew! His Master Dead On Guard 4 Days.

Alpena, Mich., Aug. 28.—From Friday night until yesterday afternoon, a small water spaniel lay whimpering in front of his master's shanty. Dozens of people noticed the dog's peculiar action and passed on. Several offered the animal food but it refused to eat.

Finally it ceased to whine and began to yelp and late yesterday succeeded in inducing neighbors to enter the dilapidated building. There they found the body of Frank Cleveland, a junk dealer, whose sole companion for years had been his dog.

Cleveland is believed to have died of heart disease. His body was cold when found.

THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

Consumption—What It Is.

By DR. WILLIAM S. ELY.

Tuberculosis of the lungs, the most contagious and fatal form of the disease, is caused by the presence of tubercle bacilli (germs) in the lungs. The germ multiplies rapidly and feeds on the lung substance, which it gradually destroys.

The important symptoms of consumption are cough expectoration (or spitting of phlegm containing the tubercular germs), hemorrhage (or bleeding from the lungs), fever (increased temperature of the body, especially in the evening), difficulty in breathing, pains in the chest, night sweats, loss of appetite, emaciation (loss of flesh).

The germ of consumption enters the system in three ways—first, by being inhaled or breathed into the lungs; second, by being ingested—that is, eaten in tuberculous food or drunk in milk or water contaminated with the germ; third, by inoculation or the penetration of tuberculous substance through a wound in the skin. Of these three the first is the most important.
